

PROJECT OVERVIEW

Sustainable Financial Literacy for Young People with Disabilities (DISFINLIT)

It is an innovation and educational project focused on the need for high quality online tools and platforms that help young people with soft intellectual disabilities to:

- Develop sustainable financial literacy.
- Make smart and sustainable financial decisions.
- Understand money management.
- Cope with an ever-changing economy.
- Overcome inevitable challenges.
- Take charge of your own financial future.

DISFINLIT OBJECTIVE

Create accessible materials for young students with disabilities, in order to support their sustainable finance education and contribute to improve their personal finances management, within the Green Deal framework.

TARGET GROUP

Secondary school students with soft intellectual disabilities

PROJECTS RESULTS

The main activities of the project are defined in two main Project Results:

PROJECT RESULT 1: ADAPTED CURRICULUM AND MATERIALS FOR YOUTH WITH DISABILITIES.

It includes:

- The compendium of existing educational material and good practices in financial education and sustainable finance.
- The definition of online learning objectives with EU instruments for young people with soft intellectual disabilities.
- The development of the existing curriculum and training material adapted to people with disabilities.

PROJECT RESULT 2: COMMUNITY OF GOOD PRACTICES

Consists of:

- Contact and create a community with as many people as possible interested in this topic.
- Create and select the best platform to host the community content and communication tools, include the content and start sharing it.

KICK-OFF MEETING

On April 4-5, 2022, the Kick-off Meeting of the recently-approved European project DisFinLit took place in Madrid, in face-to-face mode. The Project officially started, stay tuned to find out about the upcoming activities!

The meeting involved 6 organizations from 5 different countries: IEF - Institut d'Estudis Financers (ES) as project coordinator; EURODIMENSIONS (MT); DFW2W (NL), Associazione EFFEBI (IT), CONACEEE - CONFEDERACION NACIONAL DE CENTROS ESPECIALES DE EMPLEO(ES) and ACEEU (DE) as partners.

THE COMPENDIUM OF GOOD PRACTICES IN SUSTAINABLE FINANCIAL LITERACY FOR YOUTH WITH DISABILITIES IS AVAILABLE!

The DisFinLit project has developed the Compendium of good practices on sustainable financial literacy for young people with disabilities. This compendium provides comprehensive contributions focusing on the development of sustainable financial literacy skills for young people with disabilities from the Netherlands, Italy, Malta and Spain, as well as an international perspective (within and outside the EU).

SECOND TRANSNATIONAL MEETING IN ROME

On October 25 and 26, 2022 the DisFinLit project consortium met for the second time in Rome, Italy. The Italian partner, Effebi, hosted the meeting. All partners presented the results of their focus groups. The next steps for the focus groups are related to analysing the existing materials and discussing how to adapt them. IEF introduced the website and explained how the materials created and adapted in the project will be part of this website. The next transnational meeting of the project will take place in Münster (Germany) and will be organized by ACEEU.
