FINAL CONFERENCE IN THE NETHERLANDS

The Final Conference and Award Ceremony of the PLASTEAM Contest winning videos took place in Connect College in Echt(the Netherlands), on 30 March 2023. The Conference started with a key note speech by Wim Didderen, Biologist and Educator with a long experience in Education for Sustainability, on current challenges around plastic pollution and ways to motivate our students on the issue.

During the next part of the conference the PLASTEAM project and its main outcomes were presented, followed by five rotating workshops in which the participants were actively engaged in selected STEAMBOX' activities. The participants were teachers, pupils and ESD experts from five countries (Greece, the Netherlands, Romania, Malta, Italy). Part of the Conference was also livestreamed in order for the pupils and families of the national winning teams to follow the announcement of the winners of the international contest.
